

Building a Better Future for Autism in Canada

A Partnership to Advance Canada's Autism Strategy

Objective

To enhance the quality of life for Autistic people and their families across Canada.

Complementary Strengths

The Alliance and the Network serve distinct but connected functions to help Canada's Autism Strategy produce real results.

Meet the Partners

"The Alliance": Advocacy & Research Policy Engine

Provides the policy know-how, evidence-based frameworks, and foundational intellectual guidance that helps power the Network.

Serves as the larger advocacy arm, holding the government accountable to its commitments.

"Sinneave": Operational Backbone

Receives, manages, and distributes funding to other parties for Project activities.

Oversees, monitors, and reports to the government on the progress of Project activities.

"The Network": Community Engager and Collaborator

Unites the expertise of Autistic people, families, and partners across Canada to set priorities, shape solutions, and align efforts.

Facilitates engagement and brings forward community-informed perspectives.

How the Alliance and the Network Work Together

Strategic Alignment

This collaboration is a core deliverable of both the Alliance's and Network's strategic plans.

Amplifying Your Perspectives

The Alliance ensures the perspectives of its members directly influence national policy through the Network's Strategic Priority Committees

Policy Leadership

The Alliance advises the Network with policy know-how and evidence-based frameworks.

Our Commitments to You

Independence

Each organization has their own board and staff while working toward shared goals.

Transparency

Each organization provides their own regular public reporting and open communication on our different mandates.

Impact

By partnering, we combine policy and research with community to build a more inclusive Canada.
